Rendezvous Hotels International Announce Two New Appointments

Sydney, May 2005 - Rendezvous Hotels International ("RHI") is pleased to announce two new changes to their key executive team.

Aik Hong Tan has been appointed as General Manager at Rendezvous Observation City Hotel, Perth. Previously, Aik Hong was General Manager at Rendezvous Hotel, Singapore becoming RHI's General Manager of the Year in 2004. He spent 6 years in the role, making the hotel a strong performer in the competitive Singaporean market.

Replacing Aik Hong as General Manager for the Rendezvous Hotel, Singapore is Kellvin Ong. This is Kellvin's first appointment to the position of GM; however he is well acquainted with the hotel spending 3 years as Executive Assistant Manager and understudy to Aik Hong. RHI is highly confident that Kellvin, as General Manager, will build on the strong foundations already established.

Alan Featherby, Chief Executive Officer of RHI says: "I am very pleased to welcome Aik Hong and Kellvin to their new positions. I look forward to their continuing dedication and I am confident that they will help build on our present successes, taking the RHI brand from strength to strength".

Rendezvous Hotels International currently operates 7 hotels in the Asia-Pacific region including 4-5 star properties in each Australian capital city, the Rendezvous Hotel Singapore and the Rendezvous Merry Hotel, Shanghai. Three additional RHI properties have also been announced; Rendezvous Sanctuary Resort, Cable Beach, Broome set to open in mid-August 2005, Rendezvous Resort, Phuket due to open mid-2006 and Rendezvous Lanko Hotel, Chongqing, China, also to open in 2006.
